

Dish Network Scholarship

Who may apply: Students who have at least a 2.5 GPA and will be an incoming freshman or current sophomore, junior, or senior in college are eligible to apply.

How to apply: Watching live sporting events has been the most popular reason for watching TV for decades. With the advent of easy-to-use DVR technology in the 1990's, and then its wide-spread adoption over the last fifteen years, sports remain one of the few types of programming that are consistently watched live versus recorded. Using psychological and sociological principles, attempt to understand and explain this issue: "What makes watching a sporting event live more valuable than watching it pre-recorded, and why is this different from most other programming?" For more information or to apply, please visit the scholarship provider's website.

Deadline: May 31, 2018
